

Dynamics of Hound Training

Volume One

Basics and Foundation

By Vickie Lamb

Contains basic training principles and foundation training. Information in Volume I includes importance and details about socialization, why older dogs sometimes have learning problems, keys to successful training, discussion on e-collars, how to get started with e-collars, and much more. Much of this program – although structured for tree hounds – can be applied to any breed of dog.

Vickie Lamb has spent her lifetime training and hunting sporting dogs, primarily hounds and retrievers. More than 600 of her articles have appeared in numerous publications, including AKC Gazette, American Cooner, Coonhound Bloodlines, Hunting Retriever, Retrievers Online, The Retriever Journal, and Just Labs magazines. She has earned her reputation as an expert on training methods, principles, problem solving – particularly e-collar application – in both fields through training, competition and real-world hunting. In addition, Vickie and her dogs have appeared on ESPN, Outdoor Life Network, Outdoor Channel and WGN. She walks the walk and talks the talk. This book contains time proven principles, ideas and methods that can enhance anyone's training program.

Reviews:

“.....without a doubt the most informative book on training coon dogs I have seen. If you have been hunting 25 years or just starting you should own a copy.”

– Lee Weatherford, Hineston, Louisiana

“It will prove to be an excellent resource for all dog lovers, new and old... great job on the book. It looks not a word less than I’ve come to expect from Vickie Lamb”

– Kelly Haynes, Red Sunset Kennels

“It is an excellent book that covers areas never before touched on and it has found a home in my library.”

– Larry Atherton, Bittersweet Kennels, Clio, Michigan.

“Vickie’s book is the kind of book that anyone can benefit from, old-timers and newcomers alike. And it is enjoyable to read. [This book] is destined to become a classic.”

– David W. Fletcher, Fletcher’s Kennel, Emory, TX

“...Over the years Vickie has mastered the art of writing on a level we all can relate to and understand well... This [book] is a huge step up from anything you have ever seen in the hound world; it is a ‘must read’ for any serious houndsman.”

– Jerry Moll, Salt Creek Coonhounds, Batesville, Indiana

“Vickie Lamb has gone where no one in our sport has gone before in terms of awakening the desire within each of us to handle well-trained hounds for competition or pleasure hunting... She builds her case that anyone, you and me included, can train a dog and she covers the full range of methods, old and new, comfortable and extreme, with the clarity of an educator and the confidence of a professional, both of which she is.”

– Steve Fielder, Editor Prohound, Senior Vice-President, PKC

“...it is one of the best hound training books that I have ever read. The thing that I like most about Vickie’s book is that she gets right to the ‘meat’ and isn’t always saying “In the next chapter I’m going to tell you...” without actually saying anything. It is easy to read and comprehend; I highly recommend it to anyone that enjoys hound related books.”

– Kevin Haney, Grayson, Kentucky
